

As a professional truck driver it is imperative that I know traffic and weather conditions as I travel across the United States. Satellite radio meets that need because no matter where I am, I can have up to the minute access to that information. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.